

Environmental Quality Advisory Board

Status: Active

Created: 5/3/1993

Ended:

Description: The Environmental Quality Advisory Board (EQAB) advises the City Council on issues related to environmental quality as well as the prioritization of future environmental activities and programs. The Board can also make nominations for recipients of the Environmental Achievement Awards, and assist staff in developing contacts in the community that could result in public/private partnerships to deal with environmental problems. Special Qualifications - As specified in the Scottsdale City Code, the membership of the Board shall reflect both scientific (professional backgrounds in engineering/planning and earth science) and non-scientific interests (representatives from the business community and community at large). As long as both scientific and non-scientific interests are represented, the code does not dictate a precise number of members with scientific vs. non-scientific backgrounds.

Authority:

Ordinances: 2528 (5/3/1993) - S.R.C. 2-301 to 2.304

Resolutions:

Purpose:

The purpose, powers and duties of the Environmental Quality Advisory Board are combined in S.R.C., Sec. 2-303.

Powers and Duties:

S.R.C., Sec. 2-303. - Purpose; powers and duties.

The Scottsdale Environmental Quality Advisory Board will advise the City Council on issues relating to environmental quality and on the prioritization of future environmental activities and programs. The board shall also assist the council by providing nominations for any environmental achievement awards established by the Council. The board may also provide assistance to staff in development contacts that may result in coordinated efforts between the public and private sectors to address environmental concerns.

Bylaws:

The Environmental Quality Advisory Board approved bylaws in March 2001 and revised them on November 17, 2004. The Bylaws were further amended on January 19, 2011.

Bylaws Provisions:

Purpose and activities of the board

ByLawProvision

Organization: make-up of the board, officers, vacancies, resignation to seek public office, committees, legal counsel, proxy voting

Clarification of meeting times, locations and procedures: quorum, member attendance, vacancies, conflict of interest, abstention

Official records: definition, recording of vote, retention of files, public records

Amendments and rules: standing rules, Robert's Rules of Order, interpretation and conflict

Absences (Bylaws): If member a is absent from three (3) consecutive, or four (4) of six (6) regular meetings, the member shall be removed from office effective on the date of such Board member's third consecutive or fourth absence out of six (6) regular meetings. Upon the Board member's third consecutive or fourth absence out of six (6) regular meetings and upon a majority vote of the Board, the Board may elect to set aside the termination provision and determine an appropriate time extension for such Board member to return to the next regular, or special, Board meeting. If the Board fails to vote on or votes not to grant a time extension, the affected Board member shall automatically be removed from the Board on the date of such Board member's third consecutive or fourth absence out of six (6) regular meetings.
